SCREAM

Plymouth

IF you believe what's written on the civic plaques in the shopping centre of this fishing town, then Plymouth is a "City Of Adventure". But judging by all loudly clanking placky bags of Red Stripe, clutched by virtually everybody we pass, "City Of Lager" would be more appropriate. Heading for the seafront, the crowds are making their way to the Plymouth Festival, where the headline act is folk-rock outfit, The Men They Couldn't Hang. No surprises so far. However, what you don't expect is the metamorphosis of Plymouth from a salty sea town into a dance nirvana for 2,000 club fiends, who descend on the place every Saturday evening. But then, you wouldn't be accounting for Scream.

We arrive at 11 pm to discover the club in full motion and, asking for the promoter, the lady at the entrance (who turns out to be his mum) informs us he's probably in the egg. The egg? Is it advisable to have eggs in clubs? Would we be able to spot it easily?

A good ten feet high and constructed from reflective silver squares, you can't really miss it. Inside, a selection of the 34 (yes, really!) resident DJs engineer the moving picture below like a kind of sonic projector.

Tonight it's Sarah Chapman and Parks & Wilson who provide the epic breakdowns which act like trap doors into a fantasy world for the bare-footed ravers and flare-wearing acid house hangovers on the floor below. The descendants of swashbuckling pirates, they take to the stage like fish to water. While others, briefly coming up for air, slum along the brightly-lit corridors which lead to more rooms of the same.

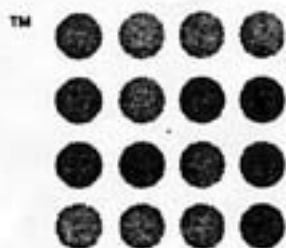

It could almost be a flashback to the days of Quadrant Park, Shelley's or Conspiracy, where you could wear silly hats and dance around like you were in the throes of an electric shock, and nobody cared.

With party-goers arriving from Barnstaple and Exeter, Cheltenham and Torquay, it's as if Devon has somehow tapped into a vast energy flow which seems to have bypassed so many cities with established scenes.

And, as the crowd sing along to the final bars of "Born Slippy", slapping each other on the back and grinning from beneath their sweaty fringes, you know this lot will be back again next week and the week after that and the week after that...

>>Dear Member,

First of all we would like to thank you all for supporting SCREAM over the past 2 months. We are very grateful for the support that you have given, which is needed to make this night one the countries best nights out.

Like any new business we have had a couple of teething problems, and would like to take the opportunity to apologize for the cancellation of a couple of our live P.A's, we have also had to reschedule BOY GEORGE and SASHA for next month and the month after due to recording commitments; Every possible safe guard has been taken to make sure that this does not happen again.

In June SCREAM presents two of America's leading live acts. starting of with the legendary JOCELYN BROWN who will be performing her singles 'ALWAYS THERE,' and 'SOMEBODY ELSE'S GUY,' alongside her latest material, which is guaranteed to lift the roof off the place. She will be accompanied by the MIXMAG DJ's DJ of the year JOHN DIGWEED, who will be playing a massive 4 hour set. SCREAM also present the GO BEAT TOUR with GLOW WORM who will be performing their massive club hits, 'I LIFT MY CUP', and 'CARRY ME HOME'.

At this we would like to remind you about our FANCY DRESS SUMMER BALL, SAT 10 JUNE. 1st prize 1 week for two in IBIZA to be chosen anytime before September. Other prizes include clothing vouchers, T. shirts and mixed tapes, cd's of your choice. We hope to see as many of you as possible in fancy dress alongside the DJ's who will be doing the same. LETS HAVE IT !!!!

We also have the pleasure of announcing that SCREAM has been chosen by MIXMAG to pay host to one of 4 FLAGSHIP nights chosen from around the country. This will be a monthly event starting SAT 1st JULY.

One of the great things to see has been the amount of people who have taken time out to send their DJ tapes and live recordings of which the standard has been exceptional. In our opinion this is a key factor in maintaining a healthy and fresh clubland, please keep them coming.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME..

NEWSLETTER

CHRISTMAS & NEW YEAR 1995/6

Dear Member,

While this is the last newsletter of 1995, we hope you have enjoyed Scream this year. Special thanks to all of you and the DJ's that have made it something special, as well as the people behind the scenes, the staff, Kenny, Phil, Leigh, Harvey, (for his photo's), we could go on forever but we won't.

Anyway the countdown for Scream New Years Eve weekend is on. Tickets have gone really well so far so please try and get yours as early as possible. Due to Council law no Clubs can charge for entry on New Years Eve so there will be no tickets on the door, although there may be spaces available for the Northern exposure Event with SASHA & JOHN DIGWEED on the 30th Dec. (NOTE: Only a ticket guarantees Entry)

In January we welcome back guests from around the country. New guests include Pete Tong, Tony De Vit, Tall Paul, Billy Nasty, Rocky Diesel, John Pleased Wimmin, Alistair Whitehead, Chris & James, Roc & Kato (N.Y.C.), Brandon Block, Tom & Jerry Bouthier and more besides.

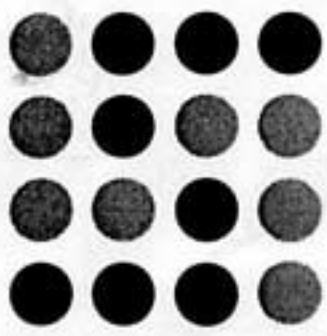

This will not be the be all and end all of Scream. 1996 will be the year of the South West DJ with more and more up and coming DJ's, being given the opportunity to show us their stuff. So get your tapes in after the New Year.

Special Edition Oakenfold tapes and official Scream Merchandise will be in all the usual outlets around 20th December, also specially recorded sets from all your favourites at Scream once we get the go-ahead.

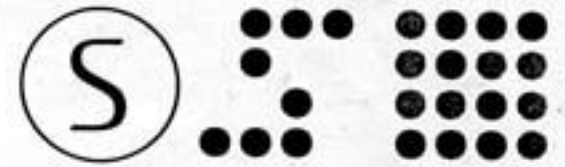

Thanks for your time and support and we hope you have a good Christmas and New Year.

*Thanks Again,
From Everyone at Scream.*

august newsletter

Dear Screemer.

First of all thanks for your support over the past couple of months. Next month Screen releases our first free magazine with all the pictures from the first year in the first issue + loads of info, competitions etc....

Watch out for the new monthly night at the Warehouse on Wednesday's in conjunction with Red Parrot [London]. A cheaper night bringing in some of the excellent DJ's from around the country that have not yet played at Sceem.

the first date is Wednesday 28th August with Danny Rampling [love groove dance party]. We still need more memberships filling in for the a.m. club so get them in a.s.a.p.

As for the rest of this year, we have some top nights coming up including the Ultimate tour with Carl Cox, Josh Wink, Seb Fontaine, Tony de Vit, Tall Paul, Gordon Kaye, Sasha, John Digweed alongside a certain special guest from Radio 1? As well as much more besides.

We also have the great pleasure in announcing that Screen this New Year's Eve will be hosted by surely one of the world's best DJ's your favourite Mr. Paul Oakenfold + guests.

@ next weeks screen with Parks & Wilson

muzik magazine will be in the club doing a full on feature in for their next issue, so remember to put on 'yer gladrags!!!
